

*Loreto Provincialate,
7, Middleton Row,
Kolkata – 700 071*

Sharing IBVM News:
July 2010

Health Bulletin:

~ Srs. Anita Braganza & Helen Borneo are well on the way to total recovery. Sr. Helen Borneo returned within a week or so of her operation to the Region and is continuing with her daily work. Sr. Anita Braganza is returning to Shimla on Mon 2nd August.

~ Sr. Euphemia received a clear biopsy report in Goa, but had a setback in Loreto House with motor coordination, and had to visit the Neurological Doctor in Calcutta. She is better now, though still shaky on her feet.

~ Sr. Lynette received the good news that she can now stop all medication for cancer treatment, as her records are totally clear. Congratulations Lynette on this miraculous recovery!

~ News from Sisters' families is worrying. Sr. Tina's mother was admitted to the ICU in Bombay for treatment, but is now recovering at home. Sr. Tina was able to spend a few days with her mother in Mumbai, but made a decision to return to Entally.

~ Sr. Mercy's mother had a stroke and was in coma. However, she has recovered considerably, but is still in the ICU in hospital. Sr. Mercy and the whole family and children have moved to Goa to be around the mother's/grand-mother's bedside. However, Sr. Mercy plans to return to Kolkata on Sat. 7th Aug, after her mother is brought home for nursing care.

~ Sr. Arokia's mother is sick in Chennai, where she had gone for the funeral of her brother. She is in poor form, and Sr. Arokia has asked for prayers.

We pray "that through the experience of trial and suffering the soul be strengthened, purpose inspired, and success achieved." (Helen Keller).

RIP: We pray for the departed:

~ Sr. Arokia's paternal uncle, who died on 4th July in Tamil Nadu.

~ Sr. Euphemia's cousin, Francis, who died in Goa on 5th July, at a fairly young age.

~ Mrs. Indira Mukherjee, a teacher from Loreto Bowbazar, and Mr. Jatin Mondol, Domestic Staff of Loreto Bowbazar, who both passed away this month, from severe ailments.

We extend condolences to the bereaved, and pray for heavenly peace & joy for the dead.

Studies:

~ Sr. Monica Suchiang is engrossed in her studies in Hyderabad, but is still struggling to cope with the spicy hot food of the campus. Her address, etc. is given below:

Address: Nalsar University of Law, Justice City, Shameerpet, RR Dist., Hyderabad 500 078, Andhra Pradesh.

Email: suchianglama@yahoo.com

Mobile: 09705056602

~ Sr. Archana Gomes has come down to Loreto House, Kolkata, to prepare for the MA Part II exam, scheduled for Oct 2010.

Juniorate:

Srs. Benista, Jeba and Jency are working hard in the Juniorate at Entally, and have already covered much ground in the way of preparation for college studies next year. Not least are they growing in self-confidence and alertness to the present moment. We wish them well.

Pre-Candidate Programme in Ranchi:

Congratulations to the Ranchi community for welcoming 6 new pre-Candidates to stay with them and continue their studies at Nirmala College as well as learn English. There are also 3 second-year pre-candidates who should be ready to join the Candidate House next year.

Birthdays & Feast days in August

4th Maloti Thakur
5th Bidalin Marshilong
6th Sr. Philomena Dowd
7th Abhay Ekka
10th Archana Gomes
11th Claire McFarland
14th Eileen McDonald
15th Alice Mary Martyris
Marion Vase
19th Rani Minj
23rd K. Clara
26th Arockia Powlin
27th Monica Affonso
Monica Rozario

In union of love and prayers,

Mantoinette Rodrigues